JOKE OF THE MONTH

A school teacher had injured his back so had to wear a plaster cast under his shirt.

On the first day of school he walked into a rowdy classroom, opened the window by his desk and then busied himself organizing paperwork. Just then a strong breeze whipped in through the window making his tie flap. This made the rowdy children laugh boisterously. Glaring at the kids, the teacher grabbed a big stapler off his desk and repeatedly stapled the tie to his chest. Discipline was not a problem after that day forward.
