LET'S SHOW SOME HOMETOWN PRIDE!!

Many people will travel to Calhoun and return back to their hometown for the upcoming 117th Annual Calhoun Colt Show. The City would like to ask citizens to show some hometown pride by cleaning up and mowing their property. This includes the ditches. Just a little TLC helps! We have a beautiful town, let's be proud of it and show it off!!

EMAIL AND TEXT CAPABILITIES NOW AVAILABLE FOR WATER CUSTOMERS

We are happy to announce that you can now receive your water bill by email, if you choose to do so. We can also send out a mass email and/or text to customers for information purposes, such as boil advisories. In order to receive either service, please contact Calhoun City Hall at 660-694-3634 to sign up and provide your email and/or cell number. An invite will then be sent to you. As always, you can pay your bill online by going to www.calhounmo.com and clicking the utility tab and following the necessary link.

CITY HALL OPEN DURING COLT SHOW

Calhoun City Hall will be opened periodically during the 117th Calhoun Colt Show. People can tour our new facility and also enjoy some Calhoun history that will be on display. Stop by and have a look!

CALHOUN COLT SHOW

We are looking for volunteers to help set up tents and benches for this year's event. If you can help, please show up at 6 p.m. on Wednesday, September 9th on the Calhoun Square. Any help would be greatly appreciated.

JOKE OF THE MONTH

A little girl, eating a juicy pickle, stuck out her hand and said, "Look Mommy, I killed a fly."

The mother immediately grabbed up the little girl, placed her hands under a faucet and scrubbed them clean with soap. Afterwards, she sat the girl down, gave her back her pickle and asked, "Now, how did a little girl like you kill that fly all by herself?" The little girl, between bites, said, "I hit it with my pickle."
